Lomita Ginger Is
Once Again Winner

One of forty-nine entrants at the Puppy match held at West Lake Park Sunday July 8, by the Pacific Coast Boston Terrier Club, Lomita Ginger, 5 months old puppy, owned by Mrs. Margaret Forrester, was again adjudged a winner. Recent additions to Mrs. Forrester's kennels are two dogs of nationally famous lineage, "Chauncey Ring" representing five crosses of Ringmaster breeding, and Buccaneer 3d, a little 13 pound dog from San Francisco.

LEAVE ON TRIP

Several of the boys belonging to the Western Rangers left Lomita about 4:30 a. m. Monday for a thirteen day stay at camp Bradford.

Buy it in Torrance.

HUMAN SOCIETY WILL BENEFIT

Over fifty trophies will be awarded winners at the Boston Specialty Show to be held Saturday, July 14, at the Municipal Auditorium, Long Beach, for the benefit of the Humane Society.

F. L. Forrester of Cypress street is chairman of the Bench Show.

Get Busy If You Want a
Cedarpines Park Cabin Site

The Fish are Biting, the flowers are blooming, the ferns are knee high and all nature is clothed in beauty to attract the eye. The Roberts', Tolson's, Von Hagen's, Fess', Muellers', Moore's, Sharp's and several others from Torrance and Lomita are building or preparing to build their cabins now.

My urgent recommendation to you is that you make your selection as early as possible while there is still some choice sites. Throw a lunch and the kiddies in the "bus" next Sunday and drive up. The trip alone is worth the price of a lot.

Those ten beautiful sites I told you about last week are going fast, as well as the less expensive sites.

*Last you forget lots are from $25 to $100.

One-fourth to one-half acres are from $150 to $300.

Water piped down the road in front of each lot.
